

Preserve diversification and preserve our democracy. Fundamental to our heritage is access to many points of view. The change in regulations allowing the consolidation of broadcast media is not in our country's best interest.